

24-7 PRAYER WEEK 19-26 July 2020

Monday to Tuesday

❖ MONDAY EVENING SESSION:

- Holy Spirit meet us
- Think more highly of others than ourselves
- Be merciful to others - felt strongly by someone that morning
- God speaks in a whisper
- Lord, when we don't surrender, knock the walls down!
- Guide us Lord, we need you

❖ TUESDAY MORNING SESSION: Good News to Torquay

- Crucial point in life of UV – how do we respond locally?
- GNT needs to be a beacon of justice and mercy and must do so with humility.
- Psalm 100:1-5
- Programmes without transformed people won't work - Col 3:12-15
- Start with children and young people to affect the future
- Sort out town centre to give aspiration
- It is a circle – where do you start – they are all connected
- Go back to basics – never lose sight of the Gospel
- Look at what we do well and build on that – TLG?
- Work with and not do to, and with dignity
- Desperate need for people to be reconciled to Jesus. Needs to be a longing to introduce people to Him
- Eph 6:11 the armour of God

- ❖ A song about loving the lost people of this dying world – we have to be love in action <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TxXQjrVehs>

❖ LUNCHTIME SESSION:

Thankfulness for the Churches all around and prayer that they could be guided together to do God's work.

People scared to go out.

Prayer for the Homeless.

Thankfulness and prayer for all groups across the Church.

Prayer for the street Pastors, keep those out late safe.

People going out to enjoy themselves to be sensible.

Local hospitals--thankfulness for hard work and prayer for those unable to go to the hospital. Prayer for young people.

Prayer for the disabled--thanks for B2gether volunteers, night shelters and CAP.

Thankfulness for Church members shifting online-- prayer that new people can be welcomed into UV.

Prayer for people to find God.

Thankfulness for Alpha.

Links across the world (Chad, Moldova).

Yielding to God is easy when we know it's in His hands.

"Not my will but yours be done" - Give all to you knowing that we can trust in you.

Reset ourselves, walking humbly with our God, looking to You because You care.

Proverbs 19:21 (in response:) Thank you for your purpose will prevail above man's.
Moving to the new normal means new changes in our lives and Church, equip us to react to these changes and the opportunities coming - despite the circumstances, we have a bright future with God
Bright future-- image of a sunrise, easy to focus on the black all around us but the gold is still there.
